

Sponsor a Kid: Partnership Prospectus

Moose Jaw Boxing is a non-profit youth boxing club, and $500 helps cover a full season for one kid. Your business gets real recognition for it: on our website, on our social media, in the gym, and at our events, from a club that publishes its board, its bylaws, and its Safe Sport policy. Sponsorship is invoiced as marketing, so it sits in your advertising budget, no charity receipt needed.

The club in one paragraph

MJ Boxing Inc., operating as Moose Jaw Boxing, was incorporated on September 2, 2026 as a Saskatchewan non-profit corporation (entity 102243021). A volunteer board governs it, two signing officers approve every payment, and its bylaws, code of conduct, and Safe Sport policy are public at mjboxing.ca/governance. The gym is at 1-69 Highland Road. Kids and youth aged 8 to 17 train in six-week Foundations courses and weekly Youth, Teen, and Girls Academies. Sparring is never required. The club's Safe Sport policy requires every coach to be screened and trained, and parents can watch any session. The plan for this season is thirty kids, with eight free or subsidized spots a year for kids whose families cannot pay.

What your money does

Amount	What it funds
$55	One kid, one month of Academy training
$175	One kid's six-week Foundations course
$500	Most of one kid's full season of Academy training
$2,500	Helps cover five kids' seasons, or the club's gear pool for a year
$5,000	Helps cover ten kids' seasons, or every Foundations cohort for a year

The club never identifies which kid a sponsor pays for. Families are not told who covered their spot, and no child is ever named as sponsored. What we report is the count: how many kids trained because of you.

Partnership levels and what you get

Level	Amount	Recognition
Ally	$100	Name on mjboxing.ca/sponsors and a thank-you post on the club's Facebook page.
Supporter	$250	Name on the website, thank-you post.
Champion	$500	Logo and link on the website, thank-you post, a season-end note on what your gift did.
Corner Sponsor	$1,000	Logo and link on the website, announcement post, a Sponsor Spotlight post, your name on the sponsor wall in the gym.

Level	Amount	Recognition
Ring Sponsor	$2,500	Everything above, plus your banner in the gym, your logo on the Sponsor a Kid flyer and event materials, and a quarterly impact report.
Season Partner	$5,000	Everything above, plus “Foundations presented by” naming on every cohort post and on the schedule page for the season, recognition from the mic at club events, and an invitation to visit a class.
Founding Partner	$10,000 and up	Named partner of the Community Youth Program for the season, first placement everywhere the club is seen, banner naming at club shows, and an annual impact report written for your board.

How recognition works. A thank-you post goes up within 48 hours of your sponsorship, tagging your business. Sponsors rotate through a monthly Sponsor Spotlight. Every Foundations cohort start and every club event carries the names of the partners who made it possible. Photos of athletes appear only with a signed media release, and we never tag a minor’s account. Logos are used exactly as you supply them.

How to pay. E-transfer to info@mjboxing.ca, or a cheque payable to MJ Boxing Inc., 1-69 Highland Road, Moose Jaw, SK S6J 1M5. We issue an invoice for the sponsorship as marketing. MJ Boxing Inc. is a non-profit corporation, not a registered charity, so it cannot issue donation tax receipts, and we say so up front.

Contact. Adam Toto, President and Head Coach, adam@mjboxing.ca, (306) 313-9605. Board: board@mjboxing.ca. Everything about the club: mjboxing.ca. Sponsors: mjboxing.ca/sponsors.

Iron Sharpens Iron.